

I am writing concerning the LPFM proposals and its effects on translator stations. Currently K-LOVE radio serves our community with Christian music that I cannot get reliably otherwise. Many of the people that I know here would be devastated if we lost this station after it had been here such a relatively short time. K-Love is providing a service to our community that cannot be filled by a low power station. Thank you,
Kevin Krompart